

Bellevue Hall

BELLEVUE STATE PARK
WILMINGTON, DELAWARE

PROPERTY HISTORY

A former duPont family estate, the mansion was built by original owner, Hanson Robinson, in the 1850s. Robinson named the property Woolton Hall. William duPont, Sr. purchased the estate in 1883. He acquired two adjacent properties, increased the size, and added barns, stables and other buildings associated with his equestrian interests. In 1928, William duPont, Jr. inherited Woolton Hall and spent the next several years remodeling the property, adding tennis courts, a swimming pool and indoor horse training facilities.

This elegant estate is perfect for hosting a formal affair or business function. Surrounded by beautiful formal grounds complete with gardens, a gazebo and two exterior patios, the mansion provides an ideal setting for both indoor and outdoor affairs. The interior includes a grand foyer, a wood-paneled library, the Crystal Dining Room, a parlor, and several quaint rooms with chandeliers, fireplaces and charming turn-of-the-century décor. For wedding celebrations, the upstairs offers a stylish bridal suite, handsomely furnished groomsman's room, and a lovely sitting parlor for the bridal party. Bellevue Hall at Bellevue State Park is located minutes from I-95 in northern Delaware.

HOSPITALITY WITH A NATURAL DIFFERENCE
