

Indian River Life-Saving Station

REHOBOTH BEACH, DELAWARE

PROPERTY HISTORY

The Life-Saving Station has been meticulously restored to its 1905 appearance, complete with its diamond-shaped trim facade and rustic color.

The station was built in 1876 for use by the United States Life-Saving Service, a government organization created to respond to the alarming number of shipwrecks along the coastlines of the United States.

Take a trip back in time with the help of a soft breeze and the pristine white sands of the Atlantic Ocean at the historic Indian
